AI Overview

In Arizona, Aggravated Assault (Class 4 felony) carries a statutory prison range of 1 to 3.75 years for a first offense, though probation with up to a year in jail is possible. Misdemeanor Assault carries up to 6 months in jail, and Disorderly Conduct generally carries up to 6 months in jail. Shouse Law Group +5

Felony sentencing in Arizona relies on a complex matrix (A.R.S. § 13-702). If the defendant is convicted of all three, the specific penalties, sentencing guidelines, and financial impacts break down as follows: Millar Law, P.L.L.C. +1

1. Aggravated Assault (Class 4 Felony)

Because Aggravated Assault involves aggravating factors (like a deadly weapon or a specific victim type), the base range of 1 to 3.75 years can increase significantly.

- Minimum/Typical Prison Time: For a first-time, non-dangerous offender, the absolute minimum probation disposition is 0 days in prison, but typical "flat time" prison ranges are 1 to 3.75 years (the presumptive term is 2.5 years). Tamou Law Group +1

Ask anything

- Minimum/Typical Jail Time: 0 days (with probation) up to a maximum of 6 months in jail.
- Typical Penalty: Up to 3 years of probation, mandatory counseling (if designated as Domestic Violence), and community service. Lavy Law +1

3. Disorderly Conduct (Class 1 Misdemeanor or Class 6 Felony)

- If Misdemeanor: Up to 6 months in jail, 3 years of probation, and community service.
- If Felony: If the disorderly conduct involves recklessly displaying or discharging a firearm/deadly weapon, it becomes a Class 6 felony. The sentencing range for a first-time Class 6 felony is probation with up to 1 year in jail, or a prison term of 0.33 to 2 years (presumptive is 1 year). Salwin Law Group +4

Typical Range of Penalties & Costs

Apart from incarceration, the financial and structural penalties in Yavapai County Superior Court include:

- Fines & Surcharges: Base fines can range up to $2,500 for a Class 1 misdemeanor, and up to $150,000 for felonies, heavily compounded by state-mandated surcharges (often increasing the base fine by 80%). Salwin Law Group +4
- Court & Jury Costs: Under Arizona law (A.R.S. § 13-801), judges can—and often do—juror per-diem and mileage). These typically range from a few hundred to several thousand dollars depending on the trial's length.

- Restitution: The defendant is required to cover all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the victim, which can include medical bills, psychological counseling, or lost wages.
- Fees: Monthly probation fees (around $65/month), mandatory domestic violence fees, and local jail incarceration daily fees (typically $50 to $100/day for time served).

If you are observing the trial, I can help with:

- Estimating potential penalties if you provide the defendant's number of prior felony convictions
- Explaining what constitutes a "dangerous" versus "non-dangerous" allegation in Arizona
- Providing details on how victim restitution is calculated in these types of cases
